

Remembering Larry Cohen
May 26, 1948 – August 27, 2012

Larry has always loved parties! and sports and Westerns—and reading. Later, he adopted the latest clothing and grooming styles...

with courageous clothing choices in the 1970s at the Courant (!) and in the 1990s in Florida, and even on vacation in Italy...

He loved a good drink (any drink) and passed the blame to others:

In recent years, Larry & Jan enjoyed trips to South Dakota, Grand Canyon, and Italy

And they moved to Florida in 2010 and had 2 happy years on Sanibel Island

We will always remember his humor, his joy of life, and how he enriched our lives
